DIRECTOR'S UPDATE:

This past month we've kept busy giving tours, having our local 4H group visit and we've also had a local Day Service organization bring clients three different times.

This past Thursday, we got to host our first event of the summer.

From June- August, every Thursday from 5:30 to 7:30, we'll be serving a free meal and playing games. These events are open to families and kids of all ages. We're also looking forward to having our Forever Families event on June 23rd.

One of my highlights was when a man stopped by after seeing the word HOPE on our barn. He shared about being sober for 7 years and how we all need hope. Then we got to share our story with him. We Praise God! HHHR has been gifted the land that we use. We've been paying $12 a year to use this land. (Yes, you read that correctly, only $12.) What a blessing! We are excited to see how God uses the rest of the property for his Glory.

I'm reminded that little is much. Sharing a meal with a group of friends that includes two widows. Someone putting a $1 bill in our donation mailbox. Being a listening ear to a recovering addict and veteran without a home. A lilac blooming from a branch on a friends' tree. The first egg from our new chickens. Some of our kid volunteers built a new duck area
